

MAINE ORTHOPAEDIC REVIEW
COLBY COLLEGE-WATERVILLE, MAINE
JUNE 22- JULY 3, 2020

THE COURSE

The Maine Orthopaedic Review is an 11-day course that starts with 5 days of lectures and 6 days of self-paced computer-based instruction, review and question bank.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Colby offers housing both in dorms on campus and in a new facility in downtown Waterville (The Commons), which is located approximately 2 miles from campus. For more information about the Commons, visit <http://www.colby.edu/residentiallife/alfond-commons/>. Because they are college residence halls, all rooms have shared baths. There are double and single rooms. Light maid service of common areas, pillows, linen, blankets and towels are provided. Rooms are assigned on the basis of the date we receive a housing application. Therefore, early registration is suggested. If you have a disability, please advise us on your registration. Dorm rooms on campus are not air conditioned.

FEES

The fee includes lodging, all meals (dinner June 22 thru breakfast July 3), a jumbo lobster bake and use of campus amenities.

Campus Dorms

A single room for the duration of the course is $1,000; Double room (shared with another registrant), is $900 per person. For less than 10 nights, the fee is $100 per night. We do offer a weekly rate of $500 (up to 6 nights).

Commons

For the Commons, the fee is $1,200 (single room in a shared suite) for the duration of the course or a weekly rate of $700 (June 22 – July 3) is available.

TRANSPORTATION

Colby's campus is located two miles off Interstate 95 and is easily accessible by a number of modes of transportation. Several major airlines provide service to Portland (PWM) and Bangor (BGR) and Amtrak has train service to Portland and Brunswick. Bus service is available to Waterville and to Augusta about 20 minutes away. Waterville is 190 miles, about three hours north of Boston. Rental cars and personal ground transportation are available in Portland, Bangor and Waterville. Please visit www.colby.edu/visitors for more information

DIRECTIONS

Colby College is located in Waterville, Maine. Take Interstate 95 North to Exit 127, Waterville-Oakland. Turn right off the ramp. At first set of lights take a left onto Washington Street. Go approximately two miles to arrive at Colby by Johnson Pond. Follow MOR signs to check-in for housing at Cotter Union. To print a campus map, please go to <http://www.colby.edu/map>.

PARKING is free on campus in designated lots. During registration and lecture, please use Mary Low Parking Lot or designated free parking. Signs for faculty and restricted parking must be respected.

YOU MUST REGISTER SEPARATELY FOR THE COURSE.
